

FIRE BOX STATUS MODULE

Indicates when fire lock is left on

Built-in LED indicates when fire lock switch is on

Uses two AAA batteries for simple installation

Works with any brand and type of fire lock box

FBSM100

- Indicates when fire lock is left on or held open
- Helps prevent unnecessary service calls
- Patented design works with any type of fire box

The FBSM100 Fire Box Status Module indicates when the fire lock switch is on (held open). The module's LED will light to indicate when the fire lock switch is on. This will allow property owners to see the fire lock is on preventing unnecessary service calls.

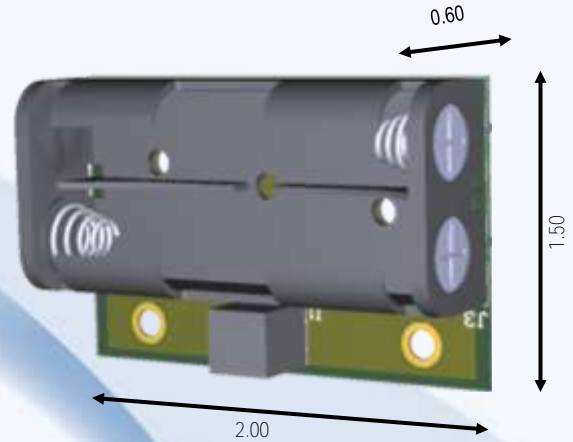

The FBSM100 Fire Box Status Module indicates when the fire lock switch is on (held open). This will allow property owners to see the fire lock is on and help prevent unnecessary service calls.

Fire Box Status Module

LED Indicator Module

Features:

- Built-in LED indicates when fire lock switch is left on or held open
- Allows property owners to see the fire lock is on preventing unnecessary service calls
- LED light is On when fire lock or switch is on
- LED light is Off when fire lock or switch is off
- Uses two AAA batteries (not included) so power does not need to be run to the fire box.
- Simple installation - Patented design can be used on almost any brand or type of fire box

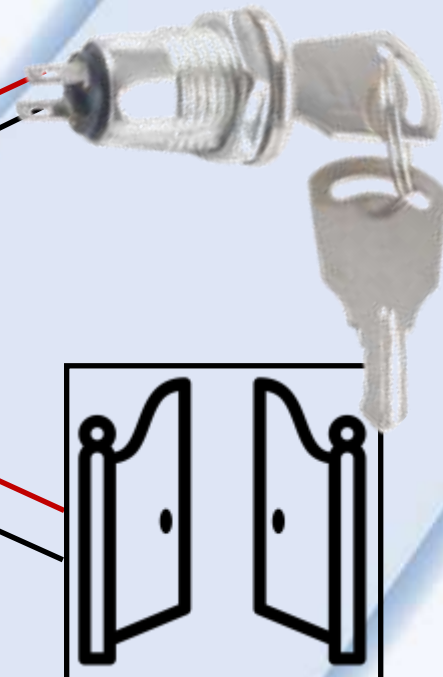

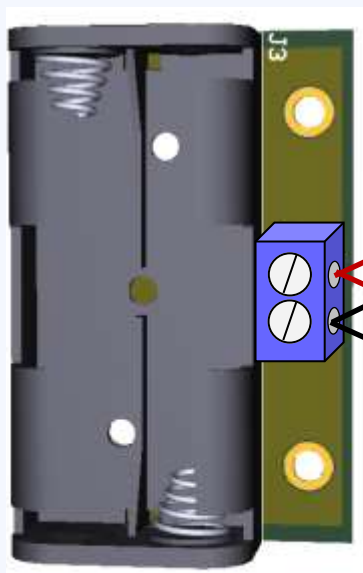

Length: 2.00 inches

Height: 1.50 inches

Depth: 0.60 inches

FBSM100
Fire lock type	Knox & Padlock switch
Power	Two AAA batteries (not included)
Indicator	LED light
LED Hole Size	0.17" Hole (#17 or 11/64 drill bit)
Dimensions	2.00" Long x 1.50" High x 0.60" Deep

Revision A